Education Assistance Fund Deadline Oct. 15

Great News! The Weld Schools Credit Union Board of Directors voted to provide more money this year to the Jeri Cranwell Education Assistance Fund (JCEAF). The Board was gracious enough to double the amount budgeted! The Committee has a total of $6,000 to give away during the October dispersal. WSCU will continue to support the Jeri Cranwell Education Assistance Fund in order to pay homage to the educators for which our credit union was built.

The fund was named for Jeri Cranwell, who was the President of the Credit Union from 1963 - 1990. The deadlines for submission of an EAF grant application are February 15 and October 15 of every year. We have three wonderful volunteers: Georgia Inloes, Judy Robertson, and Sheree Nale, who study the grant applications and come to a consensus on where the funds should be dispersed. The volunteers will meet by the end of October and will have the funds dispersed by the first full week of November. The applications can be found online at weldschoolscreditunion.com Quick Links; click on "forms and applications". Complete, print off and email back to jjates@weldschoolscreditunion.com or fax to 970-330-1668 attn: Jolene.

Here are some ideas based on previous grants:

- 30 copies of a book for a "common read"
- Classroom library
- Manipulatives for Math
- Chrome books
- Cultural Art Project
- Sphero Sprk+Steam Robot
- Battle of the Books
- World Map project
- Art – diversity project
- GT Writing Project
- TI-84 Graphing Calculators

Please share this Great News with every classroom teacher in Weld County you know! Yes, in order to apply for these funds they must be a member of Weld Schools Credit Union. This is a great opportunity to let a fellow educator know why you are a member of Weld Schools Credit Union!
