Supporting the Community

The Weld Community Credit Union (WCCU) members do a great job of referring family and friends to your credit union for the friendly service, great loan rates and low fees that are enjoyed by all of the WCCU members.

Do you realize the impact you are making on the community? For every new member WCCU donates $5 on behalf of the new member to Guadalupe Community Shelter or Weld Food Bank. We also celebrate each new loan with a donation, and the WCCU Board of Directors recently voted to double the donation for every new loan, from $5 to $10! That means every new loan: from credit card to vehicle to home equity loan.

So whenever you need a loan, turn to Weld Community Credit Union and make a difference in the community!

Now that puts "community" in Weld Community Credit Union!

Northern Colorado Children's Festival

A good time was had by all!

Weld Community Credit Union participated in the drive-by festival put on by United Way of Weld County.

The goals for the festival were:

- 1) Connect families to local resources
- 2) Provide hands-on activities for children
- 3) Get a book into every child's hands

433 cars drove through Island Grove with 1,364 people in those vehicles. WCCU handed out 500 bags with plastic coins and worksheets to familiarize children with money. The bags were geared toward 5-9 year olds.
