CREDIT UNION

Privacy Policy

Weld Community Credit Union is committed to making available financial products and services that will enable you to meet your financial needs and reach your financial goals. Protecting personal information and using it in a manner consistent with your expectations is a high priority for everyone associated with our credit union.

To ensure that you can rely upon the quality of products and services we make available, Weld Community Credit Union stands behind the following privacy policy statement:

- Our credit union will collect only the personal information that is necessary to conduct our business. That means just what is necessary to provide competitive financial products and services - no more.
- As a member of Weld Community Credit Union you also have a responsibility to safeguard your financial information. You should never give any type of account number without first verifying the source receiving the information.
- Weld Community Credit Union will protect your personal information. We will maintain strong security controls to ensure that member information in our files and computers is protected. Where appropriate, we will use security coding techniques to protect against unauthorized access to personal records, ensure accuracy and integrity of communications and transactions, and protect member confidentiality.
- You will always have access to your information. As a member of our credit union, you will always have the opportunity to review your information and make necessary changes to ensure that our records are complete and accurate.
- Weld Community Credit Union will only share information when absolutely necessary. We will only share information to administer the products and services we provide, when required to do so by the government, or when we partner with other businesses to offer a broader array of products and services.
- Weld Community Credit Union will partner only with businesses that follow strict confidentiality requirements. The businesses we select will offer products designed to enhance our members' economic security. Under no circumstances will we authorize these firms to charge your account without your express consent, and we will not sell member information to telemarketing firms.
- Weld Community Credit Union will offer you a choice in how your information is used. Any member of Weld Community Credit Union may elect to keep their information from being shared with our business partners. We will inform you on how to exercise your choice, and we will take all reasonable steps to make sure your requests are followed. At least once a year, we will remind all members of their right to choose.

Please note: Once you sign a privacy notice asking us to refrain from sharing your information with our business partners, you do not need to re-sign in subsequent years thereafter. Your privacy options will not change, unless you advise us to do so
