JUNE 2021

People Helping People

Weld Community Credit Union will be joining other local businesses in the fight against hunger. We are proudly participating in Compete to Beat Hunger with Weld Food Bank. This competition goes from June 7th to June 25th.

As usual, the staff will join your efforts by paying to wear jeans.

We welcome cash donations at <https://weldfoodbank.org/ctbhdonate/>. Be sure to specify Weld Community Credit Union in the "Company to credit for Compete to Beat Hunger" field, or by phone (970) 330-9728 to talk to a teller and make a donation from your account.

Families continue to be in need due to the virus, making this fund-raiser for the food bank more important than ever! They need your help. Cash donations are the most important because of the buying power Weld Food Bank has with other organizations.

Funding at Weld Food Bank

- For every dollar donated, Weld Food Bank can provide 4 meals to people in need.
- $.98 of each dollar donated goes back into Weld Food Bank's hunger relief programs.

Thank you for your support!

Thank you for being a member/owner!

It was fun!

It was a breezy May Saturday when 64 people gathered, socially distanced, ate box lunches and had a great time at Monfort Park Pavilion. The meeting was short and sweet to leave time for old friends to catch up with each other.

Weld Community Credit Union's 85th birthday was celebrated with decadent gourmet cupcakes.

Juils Jorgensen was honored as the longest term member in attendance and Louis Sokach was honored as the newest member in attendance.

All in attendance learned that Weld Community Credit Union is growing in members and is in a good, healthy financial position.
