A Message From Your CEO

Hello Everyone,

Last month we celebrated the retirement of two valued team members who served long and fulfilling careers at Weld Community Credit Union (WCCU), and we will miss them. If you've ever been through the Drive Up window, you've probably met Susan Kincaid who has been with us as one of our cheerful teller staff for over eight years, and if you've ever seen us for a loan, it is a good chance you may have worked with Linda Deisley as she had been with the credit union for over 21 years. We're sorry to see both of them go, and at the same time are excited for them as they look forward to relaxing and fun times ahead. Thank you Susan and Linda for all you have done at WCCU for our members.

WCCU is fortunate our employees tend to work very long careers and move from area to area within the credit union, and so quite often you may notice the teller you knew yesterday is still employed but in a different role the next time you're in. As a result of the retirements, you may notice several new smiling faces around the building. It may help to know that we train and focus on the same values today as we shared with staff yesterday. This is easy for us as a small credit union, we focus on serving you and don't have to worry about a list of corporate goals or out of town interests to cater to. We are here for you, today and tomorrow, and as a member you own this organization – all 6,800 of you and counting!

Dave

Wanted: Supervisory Committee Member

Are you retired and want to give back to your credit union? Perhaps you are a student and want to explore the world of finance?

Consider applying to be a member of the Supervisory Committee. You will receive training, learn a lot, have fun, and can feel great about giving back to your community and credit union. After all, helping others is the very core of the credit union philosophy. Apply today by submitting your brief resume and cover letter describing your interest in this position to weld.supervisory.committee@gmail.com or you can send a letter to: WCCU, Attention: Supervisory Committee, P.O. Box 336485, Greeley, CO 80633 or just drop it off at WCCU.
