SCAM ALERT

WOW, one scam after another! At Weld Community Credit Union we are here for you. Please be advised to contact us the first moment you find something unusual in your WCCU accounts. It is a great idea to review transactions daily on your mobile phone or online banking. You can still even use Datacheck, our phone banking system. Don't wait until you get a statement, you can set up e-alerts in the online banking system by going to Weldccu.com, click on the blue online banking button. After logging into your account, click on services tab, scroll to account alerts and go from there! If any questions, one of the member services team will be happy to help.

Woofstock 2022

The 2nd annual Woofstock will be held at Weld Community Credit Union on Sat., Sept. 10th, 9 to Noon. WCCU is focusing on the foster care program this year. At the Humane Society of Weld County, 53% of their animals are in foster care.

- Dog/Puppy food - Preferably Science Diet
- Cat/Kitten food - Preferably Science Diet
- Dog & Cat toys (washable) Stuffed animals (without plastic eyes, noses, etc.)
- Blankets, towels, pet beds – all bedding must be able to be laundered in a standard size washer/dryer
- Ice cube trays, Empty egg cartons, Cracker/cereal boxes
- Paper grocery bags
- Canned green beans (low/no salt)
- Canned pumpkin

Each foster care animal goes to a foster home with everything needed to take care of them, so supplies are needed! Also donations of money always help as well! Drop off at the credit union before hand or on the morning of Woofstock! It's going to be a Party! Music, Dogs, Photo Booth, and Vendors.
