Fraud Alerts for Debit and Credit Cards at Weld Community Credit Union

Have you ever received a text message from our fraud center, and it reads:

“FreeMSG Fraud Center Alert/WELDCCU 800-555-5555 Verify 25Aug $467.05 QDOBA 2198 ONL on card 8827 If valid reply V, if fraud reply F.”?

It could say something a little different depending on your information. As you read it, your stomach drops and adrenaline surges as you scramble to remember what you purchased, when, where and why.

Stop a moment, and relax, breathe in and exhale... Please remember the following:

1. Please reply with “V” if a charge amount is valid or “F” if fraudulent.
2. If you do not respond, 5 minutes later you will receive an email alert. It will have the option to reply with “fraud” or “no fraud”.
3. If no response, 5 minutes after the email alert, you will receive an automatic phone call to confirm or deny fraud.

Remember – In all cases, our messages will never ask for your PIN or account number and never click a link within the message.

Fraudsters are sending phony text, email, and phone messages, so beware! The phone number for our Fraud Center is 1-800-237-8990. Call this number if you have any questions on a fraud alert. If you call the Fraud Center they will ask verifying questions.
