Meet Chelsea Phaire: #teenspiration

"Art should be available for everyone!"

This teen is making the world a better place, one crayon at a time!

- Current age: 14
- Hometown: Fairfield, Connecticut
- Age she started fundraising: 10
- Chelsea's Charity, is a nonprofit organization that Chelsea founded for providing art supplies and art lessons to children.
- To date, Chelsea's Charity has donated over 13,000 art kits to kids across the country. The organization also distributes adult art kits to veterans.
- When Chelsea turned 10, she asked guests to bring art supplies to her birthday party instead of gifts. The supplies were used in the first homemade art kits that Chelsea assembled for kids who may not have access to art supplies, or have gone through a traumatic experience.
- Chelsea has loved art since she was old enough to hold a crayon. She is a strong believer in the healing power of art
- Chelsea includes a personal note in every art kit she assembles.

Conversation Starters:

Goal: Talk about advanced education and how any time spent learning new skills, increases a person's marketability and earning potential.

For kids under age 9:

- What are some things you've learned in school that you've used at home?
- Do you know what you want to do for a living when you grow up?
- Would you rather spend more time in college if it means making more money afterward?

For kids over age 9:

- Why do you think employers pay more for workers with advanced degrees?
- Would you rather spend another 10 years in college if it meant you'd be earning double the salary, but would owe at least $100,000 in student loans? Explain your answer.
- Is it always worth it to pursue higher levels of education?
- What are some things you can do today that can help you excel when in college?

Joke of the day:

Why would you keep money in the freezer?

Answer: For cold, hard cash!
